EVEREST EVIDENCE: The photograph that has been shrouded in secrecy since Ian Woodall and Cathy O'Dowd summited Everest has at last been published — in a calendar. A Sherpa guide snapped O'Dowd and Woodall when they completed their ascent on May 25. This is the first time the photograph has been made available despite pressure on Woodall to show proof they had reached the top of the world. The calendars, brought out by Phoenix Design, cost R150, of which R5 will go to the Nelson Mandela Children's Fund
